MEET OUR CLINICIANS

Janene Bergen is a classically trained opera singer. She obtained her masters degree in Vocal Music Performance from the Vienna Academy of Music in Vienna, Austria. Janene has performed as soprano soloist in operatic performances, recitals and as guest soloist with various orchestras, both in Europe and in the U.S. She has also sung as a choir member in various choral groups throughout her life, including the Chicago Symphony Chorus in Berlin under Pierre Boulez. She has taught private voice lessons for the past several years in Oak Park. In this workshop and Master Class, Janene will be addressing issues such as: breathing, movement, expression and communication, using ideas from teachers such as Eloise Ristad (A Soprano on her Head) and Barry Green & Timothy Gallwey (The Inner Game of Music). LCC is delighted to have Ms. Bergen as their guest clinician

The Lutheran Choir of Chicago's artistic director Wilbert O. Watkins will present a session during the vocal techniques workshop, focusing on warm-ups, movement and tone production. He holds a PhD in Music Education and Choral Conducting from Florida State University. His other degrees are in Music also, including voice pedagogy and church music performance. Dr. Watkins will share his knowledge based on personal experience and previous study and/or work with Dr. Andre J. Thomas, Rodney Eichenberger, James Jordan and the late Frauke Haasemann (Group Vocal Techniques).
